

You have an idea of good work? — So do we.

TRASER Software GmbH is one of the Europe leading providers of industry-specific software, enabling our customers to be Ready for Cloud environments.

At TRASER, dynamic software development and reliable project engineering go hand in hand. Our vast experience with real-life projects and our industry expertise allow us to know exactly what's important for you. We commit ourselves to optimizing your business procedures while getting your entire team involved in the process. The result is a host of intelligent, practicable solutions.

Junior/Medior Software Power Apps Developer

W|F|D — On-Site/Remote

Your tasks

- Implementation of Dynamics 365 Sales, Customer Service and Power Platform solutions.
- Extension of our industry solution for the agricultural and construction machinery trade through customizing, JavaScript and C# functions, as well as other Microsoft technologies such as Azure Functions
- Implementation of interfaces to other business applications
- Technical consulting for our consultants on technological questions from the projects

Your profile

- Degree in (business) informatics, business administration or comparable education
- Professional experience in software development with Microsoft Dynamics 365 (Sales or Customer Service) or the Power Platform (Power Apps, Power Automate or Power Pages)
- Knowledge of at least one object-oriented programming language in the Microsoft environment (C#, JavaScript, etc.)
- Understanding of business processes and contexts
- Analytical skills, team spirit as well as a focused and customer-oriented way of working

Benefits

- Intensive induction
- Responsibility from day one
- Short decision-making paths & flat hierarchies in an open company
- Space for personal responsibility & own ideas
- Getting to know an exciting market in the field of agricultural & construction machinery

Are you interested?

Then please send us your detailed application documents with your possible starting date and your salary expectations to Vladimir Veljovic vladimir.veljovic@traser-software.de.

We look forward to receiving your application!